

Though no one is one hundred percent sure who wrote the book of Hebrews, we do know or can assume from the text that this letter was written to Jewish Christians. The original recipients of this letter would have known and remembered the Old Testament covenants and stories that were passed down through generations of Jews. The author of this book shows clearly how Jesus is greater than anything on earth, including the old mosaic covenant. In reading the book of Hebrews we are encouraged to hold tight to faith in Christ and stand firm in our faithfulness to Him.

Questions to Ask:

As you read through Hebrews over the next 30 days, consider the following questions:

- What can I learn about Jesus from this passage
- What does this teach me about faith?
- What does this mean?
- What is (or should be) my response to what I've learned?
- How can I apply this to my life today?
